London Objections to New HENRICH Constitution.

References: OIRA-2716, 10 February 1954; OIRA-2485, 27 January 1954.

1. HNLUPIT has advised [] confidentially that London objects to Articles Three and Seven in the new HENRICH Constitution (sent Headquarters as attachment to second reference).
2. According to LUPIT, London feels:
 - a. Article Three infers Preston S. Hapold is not a loyal Albanian desiring Albania's liberation.
 - b. HENRICH is not qualified as the sole Albanian representation in the U.N. Commission, but should be only a part of whole structure.
3. [] suggested HNLUPIT should inform London:
 - a. Article Three (in substance) lifted from the original Constitution drawn up in Paris in 1949.
 - b. LUPIT/ [] have long agreed Article Seven is a snow job for HENRICH, but backers guarantee HENRICH cannot be turned into government-in-exile.
 - c. London's concern over HAPOLD tends to bear our Professors' claim that they are receiving sympathy from JAVELIN quarters as reported in first reference.
